ACC 2022: Adapt, Collaborate, and Conquer the Future of Digital Transformations

Asia's ultimate networking event, ACC 2022, is back and invites the region's top international key players and brightest minds to the shores of Boracay Island, Philippines on 19-23 September to push innovation in the TELCO and ICT industry.

"Digitalization has revolutionized the telecommunications industry, impacting our daily lives and reshaping how we do business. We at PLDT Global are proud of our long-standing partnership with ACC, which has been providing a venue for telecom and ICT professionals to discuss and plan strategies for the future direction of the industry, and network with like-minded peers to collaborate and exchange ideas that will contribute to digital transformation." - Albert Villa-Real, President & CEO, PLDT Global Corp.

Centering on the theme - Adapt, Collaborate, and Conquer, ACC 2022 brings a diverse global speaker lineup of industry experts - new media leaders, best-selling authors, futurists, entrepreneurs and tech leaders. Some of this year's speakers so far include:

Mike Walsh, CEO of Tomorrow

Mishina Ryuji, WING business development Manager, Nokia
